

Self-kindness Monitoring Sheet

What was the situation?	What was the harsh or critical voice I heard?	How did it feel to hear the critical voice? Any physical sensations?	What did your Kind Voice say?	What verbal/ non-verbal means did you use to sooth yourself?	How did it feel to hear the kind voice and engage in self-soothing?
Example: I realize I'm late in submitting an assignment.	"You are a screw-up. You never do things right".	Stupid, ashamed, as tiny as a bug.	Even if you screwed up this time, you're no screw-up.	I took a break, went out for a walk. I called a friend who I knew would be encouraging.	I felt bodily warmth; I felt like I could breathe; It made me feel determined.
