| Example: I hear about a movie I want to see but it only shows once and I already made plans for dinner with a friend for the same time. | Don't change your dinner plans. It inconveniences your friend, and her time is more valuable than yours. | This is my evening. I can choose how to spend it, and I'll get more out of seeing this movie. | At first, tension, but then a sense of inner strength. | I am glad to have noticed the tension and the inner conflict here. Even if I would have decided to skip the movie, it would have been a more empowered decision. |
